RICHMOND COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION INC.

FOOD VENDOR CONTRACT AND AGREEMENT (August 8-12, 2023)

Terms

1. Food vendors must show proof of insurance by providing the Richmond County Fair Association, Inc. with a Certificate of Insurance with Minimum Commercial General Liability limits of $1,000,000.00 (1 million) per occurrence. The Certificate must be submitted with all applicable lines of insurance identified and complete information provided. The "Description of Operations" space must be completed with relevant information regarding the name of the event, the time and dates of the event and the location. Certificates without this information will be rejected.
2. The Certificate of Insurance must also contain the following language:

"Richmond County (including its elected and appointed officials, agents and employees) is added as an additional insured with respect to the Richmond County Fair. Coverage afforded under this policy shall be primary to all other insurance with respect to Richmond County Fair (including its elected and appointed officials, agents and employees)."

AND

"Richmond County Fair Association, Inc.. (including its elected and appointed officials, agents and employees) is added as an additional insured with respect to the Richmond County Fair). Coverage afforded under this policy shall be primary to all other insurance with respect to Richmond County Fair Association, Inc. (including its elected and appointed officials, agents and employees).

3. The vendor agrees hereby to hold harmless, to indemnify and to defend the Richmond County Fair Assoc., Inc., its officers, directors and representatives and the Richmond County Board of Supervisors, its members and employees, from any and all claims, demands or lawsuits of any nature whatsoever made against them and arising out of advanced preparation of goods, setting up, installation, operation, taking down or removal of equipment and goods by vendor or for any actions by vendor employees.

RICHMOND COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION INC.

FOOD VENDOR CONTRACT AND AGREEMENT (August 8-12, 2023)

4. For any damages or injuries that may be done to or suffered by said vendor, he or she, or they, shall have redress against the person or persons causing the damage or injury, and not against the Richmond County Fair Assoc., Inc. or the Richmond County Board of Supervisors, it being understood that the Richmond County Fair Assoc. Inc. guarantees nothing except what is expressly contained in this contract.
5. The vendor agrees to assume and obtain all state, county and town licenses, taxes and inspections as required by law for operation at this event. Vendor names shall be submitted to the Town Office.
6. Said vendor agrees to handle, display, sell or operate only such articles or devices as may be specified in this contract, and only upon the space and at the stand or booth assigned, unless otherwise specified herein, or permitted by prior approval of the Fair management.
7. No subletting or substitution of vendor space occupants shall be permitted.
8. The Fair Board of Directors reserve the right to restrict merchandise or activity being offered at any booth or at any other place on the Fair property. This is a family event and all efforts will be made to keep the overall atmosphere appropriate for such an audience.
9. The vendor shall at all times display an appearance of professionalism and moral conduct. Vendors and employees should be dressed appropriately and conduct themselves with respect in regard to attendees and staff.
10. Each food vendor is responsible for securing his/her own property. Richmond County Fair management is not responsible for theft or personal injury.
11. Vendors must acknowledge and abide by requests from the Richmond County Fair management, Law Enforcement and/or Fire Marshal as well as providing unrestricted access to the site for inspection at any time during the event including before, during and after operating hours.

RICHMOND COUNTY FAIR ASSOCIATION INC.

FOOD VENDOR CONTRACT AND AGREEMENT (August 8-12, 2023)

12. The use of loudspeakers, PA systems of any type or the use of other devices creating noise or nuisance objectionable to fair officials is not permitted. This includes generators.

13. The following items are considered exclusive of the Midway Concession Operations and are NOT permitted to be sold in any form:
 - Cotton Candy/Candy Floss
 - Caramel and/or Candy Apples
 - Funnel Cakes/Elephant Ears
 - Snow Cones
 - Popcorn (including kettle or flavored)

14. No other items shall be considered exclusive to said vendor unless SPECIFICALLY noted on the final list of approved items approved by the vendor. This is at the Fair Management's discretion. Every attempt shall be made to offer fair and unbiased selection and reduction of competition so that all vendors have the best opportunity of financial success.

15. In the event that the Fair is canceled or postponed, in whole or in part, for any reason beyond the Fair's control, including but not limited to weather, acts of God, and decisions by public officials, the food vendor agrees that the Fair will not be liable for any loss of income, promotional/marketing opportunities, costs, or other damages incurred on the part of the food vendor.

Health Department Notice

All vendors must request, complete and secure a Temporary Food Vendor License as required by the local health agency. Please allow a minimum of 2 (two) weeks for processing to avoid delay. For further information please contact the Richmond County Health Department at:
